

Buenos Aires City Walking Tour - Shared

Learn all there is to learn about the magical city of Buenos Aires.

On this comprehensive tour of one of Latin America's most beautiful cities, you will develop a genuine Argentine streetwise savvy, as well as discover all of the amazing landmarks and neighbourhoods that make this such a special place to be. Appreciate the streets that made the famous tango singer, Carlos Gardel, title a song Mi Buenos Aires Querido (My Beloved Buenos Aires).

Your urban adventure begins the moment you become acquainted with your charismatic guide, thanks to whom you will obtain a much deeper insight into the histories behind every building and monument. And, in order to cover as much terrain in as little time as possible, this tour makes use of Buenos Aires' effective and ubiquitous public transport, namely buses and subways, to swiftly get you from every A to every B.

Visit historical buildings that shoulder fascinating tales and myths, and breath-taking monuments and unforgettable streets seething with personality.

Become a part of this outstanding metropolis that has brought so many artistic figures to the world, from actors like Ricardo Darin to writers like Jorge Luis Borges. Feel enraptured by the thrill and the romantic buzz of the city of football and tango, two of the elements that most have contributed to moulding this place's charming character. By the end of the day, you will not want to part ways with this gem of the Atlantic coast.
